ATTRACTIONS

Petra

An ancient Nabatean city carved into rose-colored rocks. One of the 7 Wonders of the World. A breathtaking experience and a must-see when visiting Jordan.

Wadi Rum

A southern Jordanian Desert where many movies were filmed, such as the Martian, and the only place in the world with 97% silica content, red sand and a Bortle 2 classification sky.

Al-Qatraneh Castle

This remarkable site offers insight into Jordan's rich heritage, Telling the story of revolution and the Jordanian Romeo and Juliette saga.

EXPERIENCES

Heritage Gallery

Jordan Heritage Gallery Visit

This work is the culmination of a decade-long effort that began at Jordan Heritage in 2014. Over the past twelve years, we have conducted extensive research and documentation, exploring library archives, engaging with Jordanians, and visiting our archaeological sites to curate the most accurate gallery showcasing Jordan's history.

Nabatean Fashion Gallery

Nabatean Fashion Gallery Visit

Inspired by archeological finds - pottery, drawings and other evidence, the Nabatean Fashion Gallery presents a curated collection of royal robes, gold-trimmed capes, and jeweled crowns celebrating the elegance and craftsmanship of the kingdom that built Petra.

Petra Full Tour

The city of Petra, the capital of the Nabataeans, is one of the most famous archaeological sites in the world. Petra, the world wonder, is undoubtedly Jordan's most valuable treasure and greatest tourist attraction. It is visited by tourists from all over the world.

The exact date of Petra's construction is unknown, but the city began to prosper as the capital of the Nabataean Empire from the 1st century BC, which grew rich through trade in frankincense, myrrh, and spices.

EXPERIENCES

Astro-archeology

Nabatean Astro-archeology

The inventors of the Al-Manach (almanac), Nabateans had a precise system for time measuring and astrology, among other scientific innovations that laid the groundwork for modern technological advancements, offering a deeper understanding of how this remarkable civilization thrived in one of history's most fascinating eras.

Telescope stargazing

Telescope Stargazing in Petra

During the first night of the Perseid Meteor shower, as earth collides with the trail of the parent comet named: 109P/Swift-Tuttle which was first discovered in 69BCE. In ancient Greek star lore, Perseus is the son of the god Zeus and the mortal Danaë. It was said that the Perseid shower commemorates the time when Zeus visited Danaë, the mother of Perseus, in a shower of gold.

Wadi Rum Safari

Wadi Rum Jeep Safari

Experience the Rose Desert and all of its notable sites: The Seven Pillars of Wisdom, Burdah Rock Bridge, Anfishiyyeh Inscriptions and The Mushroom Rock among others.

Your Journeys

EXPERIENCES

Jordanian Calendar

Jordanian Calendar over Tea

With the help of Ma'moun we deep dive into how ancient Jordanians and Beduins measured time and kept track of seasons over a warm cup of Bedouin Tea.

Sunset Ramdha

Sunset Ramdha

Discover how the Ancient Nabateans used the 97% silica content sand for their own heat therapy. They exfoliate their skin, heal their aching joints by burying themselves into the warm desert sand and experiencing a tradition that was recorded over 2000 years ago. A yearly tradition of the Nabatean ruling class, this experience will make you feel rejuvenated and younger.
